Two Rivers Receives Governor's Wellness Award

Kearney- Two Rivers Public Health Department (TRPHD) has been awarded the Grower Award by Governor Jim Pillen and the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services through the Governor's Wellness Award program. The Governor's Wellness Award began in 2008. Since then, more than 500 organizations and companies have been recognized for dedicating resources and time to wellness efforts in the workplace.

The Governor's Wellness Award has three categories: The Sower Award recognizes workplaces that have established quality wellness programs. The Grower Award honors businesses and organizations demonstrating significant improvement in employee health behaviors. The Harvester Award recognizes employers that are experiencing documented value and return on investment from their wellness initiatives.

TRPHD is one of the 23 Nebraska organizations recognized for providing evidence-based worksite wellness programs. Jeremy Eschliman, Health Director, emphasized the department's commitment to employee wellness and its efforts to enhance access to various wellness educational opportunities and initiatives for employees.

Two Rivers Public Health's regular office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The office can be contacted at 888-669-7154.
